Subject Quarters for the Sub judge of Chitaldrug ——

Letter No. 2462/120 dated 2nd November 1903 from the Registrar, Chief Court requesting that the quarters known as Engineer's Lodge may be given to the Sub Judge or that a new building be constructed for him.

The Sub judge in his letter to the Registrar, Chief Court complains that he is put to a great deal of inconvenience for want of a good house to live in and requests that the building known as the Engineers' Lodge which is at present occupied by Mr Ramaswamy Iyer, Special Forest Settlement Officer, who will vacate the same about the 15th of November 1903, may be converted into a Sub judge's Lodge and ~~given~~, ~~going etc~~ given to him.

The

The Registrar recommends that either the building referred to by him may be given up or a new building may be constructed for the Sub Judge.

In connection with the recommendation of the Chief Court as regards providing for the Munsiff & Sadar and the Sub Judge of Chikmagalur, a reply was sent to the Chief Court to the effect that the State of the finances of this year does not enable Govt to consider this matter.

In reply, the Chief Engineer States that at the request of the offg. Conservator of Forests who represented that the Lodge referred to was required as Quarters for the Dy. Forest Officer at Chitaldrug, the Transfer of the building to the Forest Dept was sanctioned in September 1903, and is not therefore at the disposal of P. W. Dept.

The next point for consideration now is the alternative proposal of the Chief Commissioner, viz, that a new building may be constructed for the Sub Judge at Chitaldrug.

Submitted for orders

28/12/03

In the case of a similar application for Quarters for the Deputy Collector of Sagar & the Sub Judge of Chikmagalur, Govt replied that the state of the finances during the year (1902-03) did not warrant them to consider the matter

It is not known if the finances for the next year will be more favourable.

General No: 136.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that I am put to a good deal of inconvenience for want of a good house to live in at this place. Through the kindness of the Deputy Commissioner, I have been occupying a bungalow which is convenient only for temporary use. The building is situated in an unhealthy quarter, and myself and my family have suffered a good deal. There are no good houses available in the town. There is one building called the Engineer's Lodge which is not required by the Public Works Department. Mr. Ramaswami Iyer, Special Forest Settlement Officer, has been occupying it. Since his office has been transferred to Bangalore, he will vacate it about the 10th November.

This is a suitable house to be converted into a Sub Judge's Lodge, but, it is intended, I hear, to give it to the Assistant Conservator of Forests. The Government, I beg to state, will be a loser by this arrangement. The highest pay of an Assistant Conservator of Forests is Rs: 300/- and to a District like this a Junior Officer will be deputed, whereas the pay of a Sub Judge ranges from Rs: 450 to 600, and the Government can be sure of a rent from Rs 17½ to Rs: 30. It is always difficult for a Judicial Officer to obtain a suitable house in a mofussil place like Lohitaldung. The best available houses are owned either by lawyers or by merchants who have considerable business in a civil court and it will be highly undesirable for a Judge to occupy their houses.

I beg that the Chief Court will be pleased to bring the inconvenience I am put to to the notice of the Government and move them to convert the building of the Engineer's Lodge into a Sub Judge's Lodge, and in case of their inability to do so, to construct a new Building altogether for the use of the Sub Judge.

I have Etc,

Subordinate Judge
